

Create Music by AthTek DigiBand, Sell Music in Google Play Artist Hub

The Google Play artist hub is the direct-to-fans route to selling and streaming your original music on Google Play. You choose how your music is distributed and what your earnings will be, while easily sharing your music on Android devices across the globe.

This would be a great news to all the AthTek DigiBand users. AthTek DigiBand can help music lovers create original music in seconds with only one click. If you wish, you can write thousands of songs in a day. Then you can register an artist account in Google Play Artist Hub and upload your music for selling. You will enjoy the music composition and get paid by your work.

Google Music has a one-time 25 USD setup fee for each brand new store page. There are no fees for uploading tracks, creating albums, making changes to existing albums, editing your artist page, or anything else within the artist hub. Google Play keeps a 30% commission on any sales.
