

How to Buy the Full Version of AthTek Skype Recorder

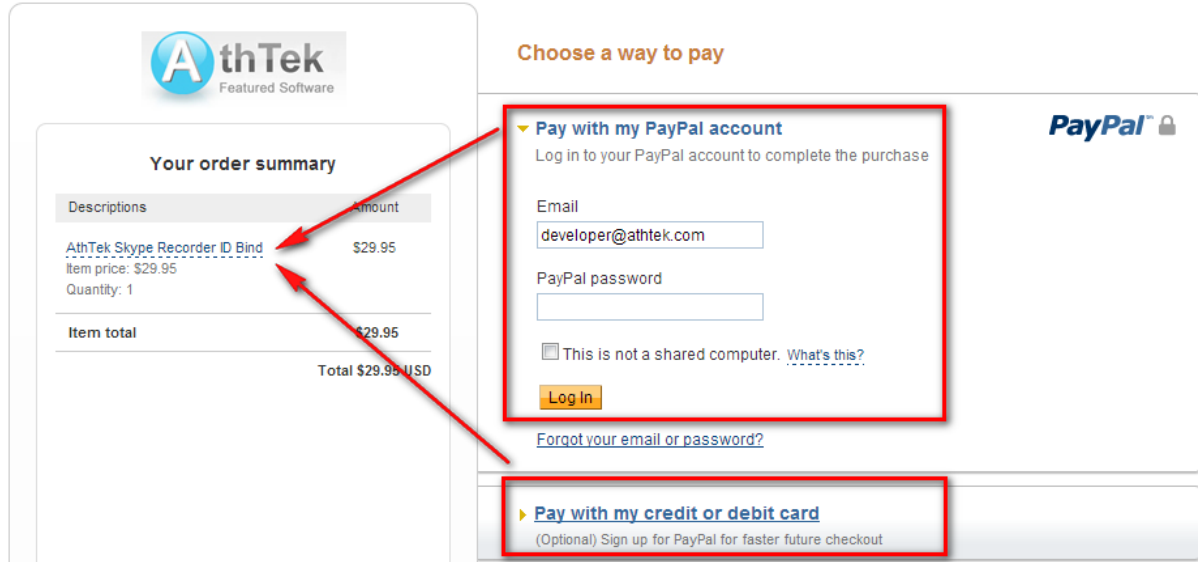

Whenever you want to use the full version of AthTek Skype Recorder, you can buy a license from either our official website or our resellers' websites. We provide 3 payment methods to buy the full version of AthTek Skype Recorder: PayPal (recommended), RegNow and Avangate. You can get a lifetime license key through any of these payment methods and the key will be exclusive to your Skype ID or PC Code. Anyway, there still are some little differences of these payment methods. In this article, you will read what the differences of these payment methods are and which you should use as your payment methods.

1. PayPal (default and recommended)

We use PayPal as the default payment method on our official website and you can get an instant license key through this payment method. PayPal is the faster, safer way to send money, make an online payment, receive money or set up a merchant account. Most of people use PayPal for online shopping and doing business. You can only use this payment method on our official website. You'd better install the trial version to your computer and access the registration windows of AthTek Skype Recorder before starting the payment. You will be asked to input the Skype ID or PC Code to generate an instant license key after paying. Skype ID and/or PC Code can be acquired from the registration windows of AthTek Skype Recorder. If you were not asked to input your license key after paying, please contact regsys@athtek.com with your Transaction ID and your Skype ID or PC Code.

2. RegNow

Most of our resellers use RegNow as the payment method to buy our software product. RegNow is an industry leader in providing e-commerce processing services and online credit card processing for vendors and authors of PC. RegNow has integrates many other payment methods into an all-in-one solution. You can use debit or credit card via RegNow, or even use PayPal or Alipay via RegNow. If you buy AthTek Skype Recorder via RegNow, you will receive a confirmation email in your mailbox. You will be asked to reply this email with your Skype ID or PC Code, then we will generate a license key for your manually and reply it to you as soon as we can. If you used USD or any other currency except for Euro, RegNow would be a good choice for you to buy digital products.

3. Avangate

Some other our resellers' websites and our branch websites use Avangate as the payment method to buy our software products. Avangate is one of the leading cloud commerce providers for online software businesses and cloud companies. Avangate also integrates almost all the other payment methods into an all-in-one solution like RegNow. If you buy AthTek Skype Recorder via Avangate, you will be asked to input the Skype ID or PC Code which you want to associate to the license. We will generate a license key for your manually and send it to your order email address as soon as we can. If you used Euro as your payment currency, Avangate would be a good choice for you to buy our software products.
